Background and Context

In the spring of 2017, the board of directors and staff leadership of Lee Carlson Center for Mental Health and Well-Being embarked on a strategic planning process. The purpose of this process was to write a strategic plan that honors the agency's history and capitalizes on the new momentum to serve the mental health needs of the community. The board and staff leaders revisited the mission and values, committed to the creation of a new vision statement and tagline, and created high-level goals and strategies that will drive the agency's growth, sustainability, and world-class services.
