

Lee Carlson Center™
FOR MENTAL HEALTH & WELL-BEING

Licensed Therapist (Therapist II) Child and Play Therapy Specialist

Lee Carlson Center for Mental Health & Well-Being, a 501c3 non-profit, the primary provider of outpatient mental health services in Anoka County and surrounding areas, is recruiting a licensed therapist who can provide service to children as young as 3 and their families. Preferred candidates will also have expertise in play therapy and or providing service through a trauma lens.

We are seeking applicants who are passionate, self-motivated, and committed about learning and sharing their clinical skills and knowledge with a dynamic team in order to provide mental health services to children. Prefer candidates who thrive on working in a semi-autonomous work environment requiring flexibility and priority setting.

The primary objective of this position is to provide mental health assessment and mental health therapy. Clinical work will occur primarily at clinic sites but may also occur in school and in home when necessary.

Education and/or Experience Required: Licensure as a Master's level qualified mental health professional in Minnesota including credential as an LPCC, LMFT, LP or LICSW. Experience working with children and their families with diverse clinical issues.

Competitive salary and benefits provided.

To apply please send a resume and cover letter with interest to ssimpson@leecarlsoncenter.org
