

Lee Carlson Center™
FOR MENTAL HEALTH & WELL-BEING

ARMHS Mental Health Practitioners

Who we are:

Lee Carlson Center for Mental Health & Well-Being is a 501c3 non-profit and the primary provider of outpatient mental health services in Anoka County and surrounding areas. Each year we offer hope and healing to more than 4,000+ individuals and families struggling with a variety of emotional health issues. Services include clinic, home and school-based counseling and individual, family and group therapy as well as psychological testing, assessment and psychiatry.

A beacon of hope and healing for over 38 years, our mission is to provide exceptional and affordable mental health services to families, children, youth, and adults

Lee Carlson Center for Mental Health and Well-being seeks an ARMHS Mental Health Practitioners will:

- Provide rehabilitative and skill-focused services to assist clients with basic living and social skills, community intervention and transitioning into community living
- Coaching participants on independent living skills and coping mechanisms
- Establish personal recovery and rehabilitation goals/objectives with each client
- Utilize creativity in rehabilitative interventions to help clients achieve goals
- Develop relationships with, teach skills to, and support clients as they work towards individual goals
- Alleviate barriers to assist client's integration into the community
- Coordinate services with case managers, families/legal guardians of clients, work personnel, and medical personnel as appropriate
- Complete all required client paperwork, including Functional Assessment, Interpretive Summary, LOCUS and Individual Treatment Plan per company guidelines and protocol
- Utilize Illness Management and Recovery as defined by Adult Rehabilitative Mental Health Services (ARMHS)
- Maintain minimum 30 billable hours weekly
- Attend and participate in all ARMHS staff meetings and trainings
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications

Education and/or Experience:

ARMHS Mental Health Practitioners providing services for the treatment of mental illness must be qualified in at least one of the following four ways:

- Hold a bachelor's degree in a behavioral science or related field from an accredited college or university and has at least 2,000 hours of supervised experience in a delivery of mental health services to recipients with mental illness
- Has at least 6,000 hours of supervised experience in the delivery of mental health services to recipients with mental illness.
- Is a graduate student in one of the mental health professional disciplines at an accredited college or university that formally assigns the student to an agency or facility for clinical training
- Holds a master's or other graduate degree in one of the mental health professional disciplines from an accredited college or university

Ideal candidates will have a general knowledge of ARMHS services, therapy services, and previous experience with mental health documentation

Competitive salary and benefits provided with many other perks including but not limited to supervision toward licensure, reimbursement of license exam fees, training in evidence-based practices, integration with our cutting edge innovative practices and dynamic and holistic model of care, credential development and professional development.

To apply, please send a resume and cover letter with interest to ssimpson@leecarlsoncenter.org

---

Lee Carlson Center™
FOR MENTAL HEALTH & WELL-BEING

Equal Opportunity Employer - Minorities / Women / Protected Veterans / Disabled. EEO is The Law - click here for more information.

Lee Carlson Center for Mental Health & Well-Being is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. If you have a disability or impairment and as a result you not able to complete an online application, please contact the Lee Carlson Center for Mental Health & Well-Being Human Resource Department at 763.780.3036 ext 544.

Lee Carlson Center for Mental Health & Well-Being does not discriminate against any qualified applicant or employee because of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, familial status, membership or activity in a local human rights commission, or status with regard to public assistance in implementing the policy concerning non-discrimination based on national origin or religion.